EIGHT WAYS THAT INTEGRATING TCP FULL-TEXT TRANSCRIPTIONS ENHANCES THE VALUE OF EEBO FOR LIBRARIES AND SCHOLARS

BUILD ON PREVIOUS INVESTMENT
The TCP collection is fully integrated with the rest of EEBO and enables cross-searching of the nearly 54,000 keyed texts and the 130,000 detailed EEBO image and metadata records.

ENSURE YOUR INSTITUTION KEEPS PACE WITH DEVELOPMENTS
Access to the searchable texts now will ensure your institution keeps up with their contemporaries’ research and teaching.

BENEFIT FROM EEBO FUNCTIONALITY
EEBO’s powerful ‘variant spellings’ and ‘variant forms’ functionality assists researchers with searching and surfacing of old spelling in TCP texts, and increases the discoverability of older materials.

HELP ALL LEVELS OF RESEARCHERS DISCOVER MORE
The collection is equally valuable to undergraduates writing papers on witchcraft or tobacco and faculty tracing the uses of a word or concept across three centuries of the English printed record.

ALLOW YOUR INSTITUTION TO BENEFIT FROM COMMUNITY EXPERTISE
Creation of searchable keyed versions of EEBO texts was entrusted to the university community and drew upon community expertise in the development of the scope and standards for the project.

SUPPORT MULTIPLE DEPARTMENTS
Covering 37 key research subjects, the collection offers cross-disciplinary support to many programs.

DELIVER A STRONG COLLECTION TO YOUR INSTITUTION
Designed to form a complete and self-contained collection, the texts in TCP-I were selected with reference to the New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature (NCBEL) according to criteria established by an advisory board of leading scholars and library leaders.
“How researchers are using TCP materials in their research”

The existence of Early English Books Online has completely transformed my teaching as well as my own scholarly life—both entirely for the better.”
— Regius Professor Quentin Skinner, University of Cambridge

EEBO IS IMPORTANT

The results of this question indicate the value of all three aspects of the EEBO resource — the image sets, the transcribed texts and the catalogue records — working together in tandem. It also indicates the significant added value that the TCP texts give to EEBO, both as transcriptions and as finding aids.

WHEN USING EEBO, DO YOU MAKE USE OF:

Participants were asked to rank various factors in order of importance to their work. The following percentages resulted, divided by ranking position.

IMPORTANCE OF EEBO-TCP FEATURES

Overall, then, accuracy of transcription is considered by most to be the most important factor, followed by completeness/comprehensiveness of the corpus. The consistency and richness of the XML encoding are considered important but less so than the first two factors.
